

Establish supply portal and RealMe® account

(for all users)

This quick reference guide takes you through the steps to create a user account in the Supplier Portal part of Hinekōrako, the Taumata Arowai regulatory and intelligence system. To access your Hinekōrako account you'll need a RealMe® account. If you don't know about RealMe®, the New Zealand Government's identity management service, you can find out more here.

If you don't have a RealMe® account, you'll be able to create one during this process. Thereafter whenever you come to the Hinekōrako Supplier Portal you'll log in with that RealMe® account.

If you already have a RealMe® account that you use to access work and/or personal services, you can use this account here. Your RealMe® account is only tied to your Hinekōrako account for the purposes of making sure it really is you who is logging in. You can do that with an existing RealMe® account. You do not need to create a separate RealMe® account for this purpose if you already have one.

Note: RealMe® is a registered trademark.

Email invitation

This process assumes you have received an email with an invitation link to create an account. That email could have been sent to you by Taumata Arowai or by an administrator of supplies you have some relationship with.

Step	What to do
1	Click on the link in the email.

Kia ora

Set up your account with Taumata Arowai and confirm your water supply registration details

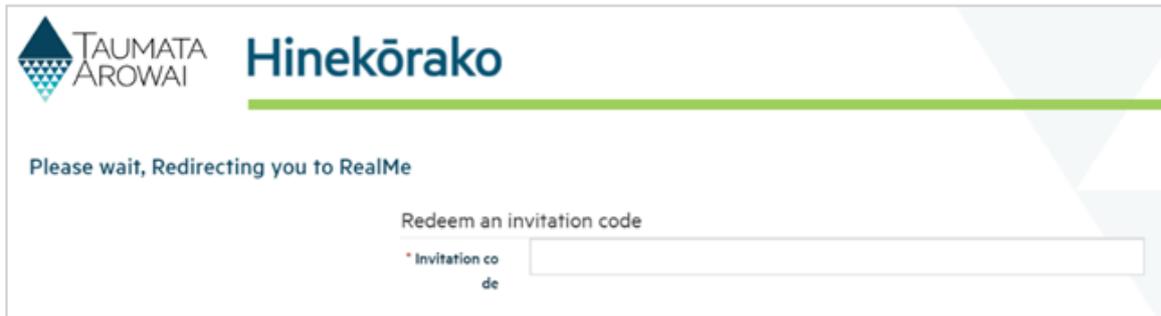

Taumata Arowai is the new water services regulator for Aotearoa, and your water supplies now need to be registered with us.

Your drinking water supply records have been migrated from the Ministry of Health's Register of Drinking Water Suppliers to Taumata Arowai.

⚠ What you need to do next

1. Set up your user account in Hinekōrako – the self-service portal for drinking water suppliers and laboratories (and the regulatory and intelligence platform for Taumata Arowai). Click on this link to set up your Hinekōrako user account. This link will expire in 7 days.

Step	What to do
2	You'll be taken to the Hinekōrako portal and from there transferred to RealMe®. The transfer might take a moment. If it does, you may see this page. Please wait until you are redirected. Note: RealMe® is a secure way to prove your identity online. If you already have a personal or business RealMe® account, you can use this to verify your identity. Your RealMe® account is only used to confirm your identity when you log into Hinekōrako. Taumata Arowai will not receive or store any of your RealMe® information.

Step	What to do
3	It is possible that for your protection your email platform may have encrypted the link in the email and then unencrypted it when you clicked on it, in the process changing the invitation code in the link. In this case you may receive an Incorrect Invitation Code error. If you do: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Go back to the invitation email and select and copy the invitation code included in it. 2. In the Hinekōrako screen where the error is displayed, delete the current invitation code, paste in the invitation code copied from the email and hit <Enter>. Please see the Correct an invalid Hinekōrako invitation code (for all users) quick reference guide on the Taumata Arowai website, if you need more information. If you still experience an error, contact Taumata Arowai at info@taumataarowai.govt.nz.

2. Click on this link to set up your Hinekōrako user account. This link will expire in 7 days.

Note:

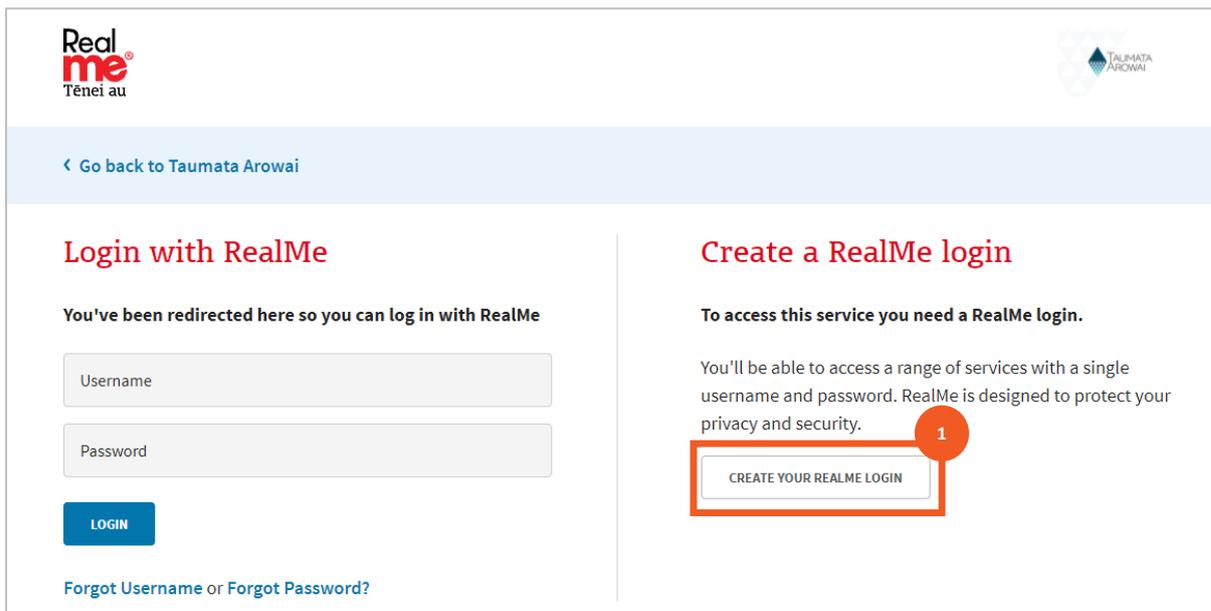

- Your email security may convert the link for your protection, changing the invitation code in the process. If you get an Invalid Invitation Code error message, replace the invitation code with the one below and hit <Enter>:
